WHEREAS, Section 48 of the Local Government Code of 1991 provides that "the local legislative power shall be exercised by the Sangguniang Bayan for the municipality;

WHEREAS, Section 52 (c) of the same code mandates that "all sanggunian sessions shall be open to the public unless a closed-door session is ordered by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present, there being a quorum, in the public interest or for reasons of security, decency or morality ;

WHEREAS, the Sangguniang Bayan Session Hall, the Office of the Vice Mayor and the offices of the Sangguniang Bayan members of the Municipality of Roxas, Oriental Mindoro together with their administrative and legislative support personnel staff are currently housed in one room of the Municipal Building, the SB Session Hall, wherein the primary function of the Municipal Board of formulating, deliberating and enacting significant local laws and policies is being conducted is bereft of required space, resulting to inconveniences and congestion during session day;

WHEREAS, the current set up deprives the Honorable Municipal Vice Mayor, the Sangguniang Bayan members and its personnel a conducive and healthy workplace to better serve the public, thus the need to a decent office would be fitting and dignified for the Honorable Members of an august body ;

WHEREAS, accommodating the administrative and legislative support services in one edifice will promote camaraderie, harmonious relationship and unity within the organization and will facilitate easy access to legislative records for both Sangguniang Bayan Members and the public;

WHEREAS, while the Sangguniang Bayan strives to provide its constituents of an improved quality service through legislative measures intended for their welfare, the Municipal Government of Roxas is financially incapable to support the completion of the said building;

WHEREAS, the Sangguniang Bayan agreed to bring this need to concerned government official and in this respect address this request to Hon. Reynaldo "RU" V.
