RESOLUTION SOLICITING THE SUPPORT OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS OF BONGABONG, MANSALAY AND BULALACAO AND OTHER CONCERNED ENTITIES AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS FOR A JOINT EFFORT TO RESTRAIN THE IMPENDING TRANSFER OF LANDBANK OF THE PHILIPPINES ROXAS BRANCH TO PINAMALAYAN, ORIENTAL MINDORO.

WHEREAS, the Sangguniang Bayan of Roxas, Oriental Mindoro passed a resolution dated July 05, 2006 requesting LandBank to abort the plan of transferring their operation to the Municipality of Pinamalayan and expressed support of its retention in the Municipality of Roxas;

WHEREAS, several negotiations were done by then Mayor Jesus M. Dimapilis and the newly elected Mayor Jackson Cinco Dy to stop the transfer of LandBank Roxas Branch but to date despite the said efforts, inaction from Mrs. Gilda E. Pico, President of LandBank of the Philippines and continued preparation for moving out were manifested by the said institution;

WHEREAS, the plan date for its transfer which will be on September, 2007 has created tremendous apprehensions and fear to the depositors, business sectors and government agencies who were all benefited by convenience and accessibility of banking transaction with LandBank;

WHEREAS, transferring the branch in Pinamalayan will not guarantee that depositors from the southern part of the province will patronize them by reason of convenience and safety, depositors may opt to transact banking in Calapan City instead where accessibility in other transactions and the availability of support services will be considered;

WHEREAS, in soliciting support for joint efforts of business organizations and local government units we are confident that our redress may be given immediate action as we believe that unity will pose a good influence to the authority whom we seek immediate solution to our situation.

NOW THEREFORE on motion of Councilor Jocelyn G. Solabo duly seconded by all -
