WHEREAS, these road conditions have time and again been addressed to the provincial government for action and as a partner of the municipal government in the promotion of the general welfare, repairs had been done so that accidents would be avoided and the regular and smooth flow of economic activities would not be hampered although some like the San Aquilino – Odiong – Paclasan provincial road has oftentimes been abandoned;

WHEREAS, it happens that sometimes the resources of the provincial government seem inadequate to fill in the needs of the different towns, which requests for action oftentimes are done at the same time so that two or more of the municipalities would have to give way and therefore suffer the consequences, the burden most felt by the townspeople;
